Against the Pool Seller with His Gwa News and Got His Money-Both Caught. Since Friday last J. A. Steinmetz, proprietor of a turi commission room at 42 Cedar street, has had trouble with the telegraph wires which supply information to his room from the race track. He complained to Superintendent Humstone of the Western Union Telegraph Company. It was discovered that the wires had been tampered with. Superintendent Hum-stone reported the matter to Capt. McLaughlin of the Old slip police station.

Detectives Nugent and Oates found connected with the wire another wire which led down a chimney at 38 Pine street into an office down a chimien as 32 time street into an onlice occupied by Harry Summerfield and Edward Fitzgeraid, young men just past 21. The detectives surprised the men yesterday afternoon in the office and arrested them. The office contained a dry battery with 21 cells, 2 relay boxes, 23 point switches, and 200 feet of office wire. This property was confiscated.

Summerfield said he was a saloon keeper of 17 Clinton piace, and Fitzgeraid said he was a bartender and lived at 34 Clinton piace.

Summerfield was recognized in the detective bureau as Lawrence Summers, who with another was greated on a charge of swindling charles R. Martin of 117 West Seventeenth street out of $1.500 by means of bogus pool tickets on April 26. He was arrested by Detectives Hanley and Heidelberg, but escaped conviction. Steinmetz declares that he has lost $3.500 by the content of $1.500 by the content of $1.500 by means of bogus pool tickets on April 26. Mrs. Mattie J. Barnes testified that she was Mrs. Mattie J. Barnes testified that she was married to Darnes on Sent 17. 1889, in schaaticoke by her father, the Rev. Isaac C. Fenton, and lived with him until last June, when she learned that he had a wife living and undivorced at the time of their marriage. Then she left him, taking with her their son, Charles Fenton Barnes, who was born on June S. 1840. She then described the manner in which the child was stolen from her father's cettage at Bound Lake on Oct 22. She next saw the child in Binghamton last Thursday. It was in the custody of a Mrs. Harrigan, who said that it had been intrusted to her by a mm giving the name of Charles McApes, who said that the was the child is father and that its mother was tend. She said that McApes was the family name of Dr. Barnes's mother. Mrs. Barnes said that she was now living with her sister. Mrs. G. R. Adams, in Rondout. She is 35 years old. She said Barnes had told her before their marriage that he had been a widower since Jan. 1, 1875.

Mrs. Susan M. Barnes testified that she had first seen Barnes in Corning, N. M. in 1875, and was margied to him on Feb. 28, 1876, in Watkins, N. L. by Justlee Kingbury. She lived with him until the following December, when he left her. She had never been divorced from him and he was now, and was on Sept. 17, 1830, her lawful husband. She is 57 years edd, and lives in New York city.

Dr. Barnes said he could make a statement, but was in the hands of counsel and would decline to do so. He was then held for the Grand married to Barnes on Sept. 17. 1889. in

Dr. Barnes said he could make a statement, but was in the hands of counsel and would decline to do so. He was then held for the Grand Jury, to answer the three charges developed in the evidence to-day, viz., kidnapping the child, bigamy, and burglary in the first degree, committed in breaking into the house of the Rev. Mr. Fenton in the night with intent to steal the child. The charges not being ballable before the magistrate, Dr. Barnes was committed to the county jail. Officer Ewan took him to the Ballston jail this evening.

ert Licenses Ecissued to Conder

President Meakim of the Excise Board said sterday that a license had been granted in his absence to George H. Brennan of 431 Bleecker street and South Fifth avenue. formerly kept by Louis H. Franchi. This is the place where The Allen was stabbed. He had signed the license without recognizing the saloon. Had he noticed it he would not have placed his signature on the paper. The had sufficient evidence to believe that Brennan and Franchi had nothing in common. "It would take a lot of evidence," said Mr. Meakim, "to make me believe that they had not." To make me believe that they had not."

Some time ago application was made by Adam Gander of 139 Eighth street, Charles Krumm of 167 Chrystie street, and Albert N. Bernstein of 138 Bowery for a renewal of their cancert garden licenses. The applicants give musical entertainments, and Mayor Grant was disincilined to renew their licenses until a thorough investigation was made into the manner in which their places were conducted. The licenses expired on Nov. 1. and on Monday night all the places were closed. Yesterday a layerable report was received by the Mayor's secretary. Willis Holly, and the licenses were renewed.

Jersey City Tradesmen Disease this Tople

The question of giving Christmas presents to customers was discussed by the Merchants Protective Association of Jersey City at a meeting held last night. President Beach, a grocer practice because the majority of his customers wanted turkeys. The most offensive and poorest paying customers, he said, wanted the largest gifts. The custom had been abandoned on Staten Island and in Brooklyn, and there did not seem to be any good reason why it should be continued in Jersey City.

Mr. Lahey went further. He said he thought key for $1.25 a gallon, as they do, water it, and key for $1.25 a gallon, as they do, water it, and then put it up in bettles for Christmas presents. It wasn't much of a present, Mr. Lahey thought, that cost the giver only thirty cents. The discussion of the subject became quite warm. One grocer said:

"I gave one of my oustomers a trifling souvenir last Christmas. She looked at it, examined it critically, and then hissed in my ear: Why, my butcher gave me a turkey! Of course I lost her custom."

President Beach rose to a question of information. He asked: "Can any member present tell me how the æsthetic grocers down town conduct this gift business?"

This was intended as a shot at the æsthetic down-town grocers who have not joined the association.

"I can tell you," exclaimed a member, jumping to his feet. "They give handsome presents to the servant girls who order the goods, and I think that is nothing more or less than a bribe."

and I think that is nothing more or less than a bribe."

President Beach said he was authorized by Mr. Kinkesd to say that he was in favor of having the practice stopped for many reasons. Mr. Lahey said it cost him $300 last year for Christmas gifts. He had investigated the subject, and he thought that there were about seven Christmas givers in Newark avenue, Jersey City, a few in Communipaw avenue, and some in Bayonne.

The President appointed T. C. Lahey, G. Lahey, Mr. Cordes, and Mr. Kinkead a committee to consider the subject and reportat the next meeting. The President, by unanfonus request, consented to act as a member of the committee.

Deputy Sheriff Young took charge yesterday clothing at 93 Stanton street, under replevins btained by Herman Joseph in favor of M. Goldberg, $326; Cohn & Sandlar, $240; A. Goodman, $120; J. M.
